Family Fun in Frankfort - 2015 One night stay in Frankfort

Day 1

Check in at the Capital Plaza Hotel.....using the room rate of $89 (Does not include tax or breakfast)

Take a guided tour through the Kentucky State Capitol (No charge), then walk the grounds and see the beautiful Floral Clock, Governor's Mansion, rose garden, and sculpture garden. Wander downtown for lunch at one of several local eateries (Average cost is $10-$15 per person), then stop in Completely Kentucky and Poor Richard's Books or Broadway Clay. Shop here and at other downtown stores for unique, Kentucky souvenirs.

After lunch stroll to the Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History (Charge is $4/person and $2/student).

The entire family will enjoy the Kentucky Journey exhibit, the Hall of Governors and the 1792 Gift Shop.

Day 2

Visit the Salato Wildlife Education Center (Cost is $4/person and $2/student) and see live plants and animals that are native to KY. Wander the trails through various KY ecosystems. Try your hand at fishing in one of the stocked lakes at the Center.

Make your way to the Kentucky River View Park and catch a complimentary Kentucky River Boat Tour (Reservation only and weather permitting). Enjoy a relaxing and peaceful trip back in time when the River was the main source of transportation and learn about the historical sites along the Kentucky River and how the River has changed over time. Before you leave town, stop by Rebecca Ruth Candy Factory (Cost is $3/person) and see the inventor of Bourbon Balls. They'll give you a taste of the sweet confections following the tour!
